CONCLUSION

It may be noted that we have completed an academic year with hectic activities in connection with the new curriculum. My colleagues have faced a series of challenges in implementing the new curriculum effectively. But due to their hard work and continuous effort they became successful in facing all challenges. They have done their best for the efficient conduct of the curricular and co curricular activities In this connection I like to place on record my sincere gratitude to my colleagues both teaching and non teaching for their full cooperation ,sincere devotion and loyalty which made my work very easy. We have been working like a harmonious family.

I express my sincere thanks to Shri. Sajin S. S., the college union chairman, Kumari. Aysha Sherif, Secretary to the college and other office bearers for their dedicated work to make it a grand success. Let me express my sincere gratitude to the staff advisor Dr. Reetha Ravi H. for her dynamic leadership and all students of this college for their full cooperation and common will.

I should also remember with gratitude Sri.Vellappally Natesan, our honourable Manager who always showers his blessings and moral support in times of difficulties. I take this opportunity to express my humble and heartfelt thanks to Sri. ThusharVellappally, Asst.Secretary, S.N.Trust and Sri.Aji.SRM, S.N.Trust Executive member for their valuable contributions and blessings and also for serving as a source of inspiration.

I take this opportunity to congratulate the PTA Vice president Shri.Mohanan Nair and Secretary Dr. Smitha S. and all other members of the PTA on their earnest efforts and commendable services.

We have before us 200 students who are among the cream of the youth of Kerala. They are the future promise for the betterment of the teaching profession, with academic distinction, positive attitude and social commitment. I am sure that they will come out with flying colours in the coming university examinations and in other tests of life.

In the name of Sree Narayana Guru who is the glowing lamp of the institution I wish each of the students a happy completion of this course. With this prayful note let me complete this report.

Thank you.
